ROSE CITY KIDS NEEDS MORE VOLUNTEERS: RCK has 500 children placed in our care- every single one of them is precious! Every one of our children would love to be built up or influenced by someone positive. Rose City Kids is expanding! A new space is presently being renovated for youth 12 to 16 yrs old. With that comes opportunities for new programs from drop in evenings to organized girls and guys programs over and above the program we are presently offering them on Saturday afternoons. If you feel God calling you to serve please consider helping us out! Imagine if all 500 of the children attending the programs were greatly influenced by some pretty amazing adults, what difference that could make. Please prayerfully consider joining our team! Together we can continue reaching more children! If interested, please email us @ sonya@rosecitykids.com
