AT NACE, WE HAVE BEGUN THE SCHOOL YEAR, BUT ARE STILL SEEKING TWO BUS DRIVERS. (ROUTES LISTED BELOW): NACE is a small, independent, faith-based school board operating two schools: Covenant Christian School in Smithville, and John Knox Christian School in Stoney Creek, and running 11-12 bus routes with students aged JK through grade 12. Our drivers are paid competitively, have a single route (you get to know your families and students!), are offered opportunity to drive occasional charters, and most of all are a part of a small team that knows one another, dedicated to the overall mission of the schools: to help kids live for Jesus, learn for life, and serve with gladness. We pay medical and licensing fees associated with obtaining/keeping your 'B' class license. We are seeking drivers to begin immediately as well as spare drivers for fill-in or short term relief. Routes may vary, however, we currently require drivers for: a) Welland to Smithville, and b) Binbrook/Hamilton to Smithville. Requirements: Minimum 3 years bus driving experience; 'B' class drivers license; Clean driving record; Reliable, friendly, able to relate well with children; Able to pass a vulnerable sector check. If you are reliable, seeking reliable work, love working with kids, have three years bus driving experience with a clean record and are interested in joining not only a team of drivers but a team of parents, teachers, and administrators dedicated to the growth of students, we want to hear from you! Contact Kevin Huinink, Executive Director (khuinink@nace.ca / 905-643-2460 or 905-957-7796)
